SECTION XIV.

PUBLIC HEALTH (SHELL-FISH) REGULATIONS 1934 and 1948:-

There is no shell-fishing industry in the Port Health Area.

SECTION XV.

No change.

SECTION XVI.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Regular samples of water as supplied to ships at Fowey, Par and Charlestown were submitted for laboratory analysis and all were found satisfactory.

Two British ships entering Fowey were reported from their previous ports of call to have unsatisfactory drinking water on board and were referred to us for action and further checking.

The year was again a record one for working in the Port area. The number of ships inspected shows an increase of 133 when compared with 1968, setting a new record total of 2622. Exports of china clay and allied products were 1,875,940 tons, again a new record, and an increase of 137,329 tons on the figures for the preceding year.

The shipping activity in the Port Authority area and the tonnage exported continue to prolong the same upward trend of the past years. The extensive improvements to Fowey docks are proceeding well and are almost up to schedule. When these are complete both the number and size of the ships using Fowey will undoubtedly increase further and it now seems likely that a total export figure of three million tons will be reached by the late 1970's.

I am Sir,

Your obedient servant,

A. M. LUTHER.

PORT MEDICAL OFFICER OF HEALTH.
